i. The Company has not appointed Company Secretary under Section 203 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 8 of the Companies (Appointment of and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014

In this regard, your Directors wish to state that the Company had made an honest attempt to appoint a Company Secretary. In spite of this, your Company is determined to appoint a Company Secretary as soon as possible and comply with the provisions under Section 203 of the companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 8 of the Companies (Appointment of and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014.

Your Directors have been trying to fill up the vacancy for two Independent Directors on the Board of the Company. Since our Company, being a NBFC, it is highly desirable to appoint someone from financial background. During the year, Company had approached some individuals regarding the same but nothing has been worked out. We are in continuous search of qualified and experienced Individuals who can with their expertise turn around the fortunes of the Company. Your Director further affirms they are determined appoint such number of Independent Directors as soon as possible on the Board to make it consonant with the Listing Agreement as well as Companies Act, 2013.

The constitution of Committees is improper as the numbers of Independent Directors on the Board of the Company are deficient. OVERVIEW & OUTLOOK

The last year has been a fortuitously good one for the Indian economy with a sea change in the macroeconomic parameters and a sustainable turnaround on the cards. At a time when concerns have been raised about global growth prospects, the Indian economy has marched on and has in fact entered a sweet spot. As a start, Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth, which had plummeted to sub 5% levels in past two fiscal years finally seems to have picked up on the back of a cyclical rebound and some genuine improvement. Growth in the current year, while not spectacular, has moved up firmly into the 5%+ handle. This improvement has come on the back of improved performance in the industrial sector, stable growth in the services sector and a surprisingly resilient agriculture sector. Further, policy action on the environmental clearances and mining licenses has helped prop up sentiment while a push to some stuck projects has aided growth prospects.

VISAGAR FINANCIAL SERVICES LIMITED

22ND ANNUAL REPORT 2014-15

Encouragingly, the pick-up in growth seems to be taking place at a time when inflation is on the downtrend as effects of the past slowdown and the massive fall in global commodity prices is filtering through the economy. Inflation levels have continued to surprise on the downside and have printed comfortably under the Central Bank's comfort zone. Price levels have seen an across the board moderation as food, fuel and service price inflation has come down. This clearly shows that there is still some slack in the economy as it grows below its potential rate of growth.

This moderation in inflation has also had an impact on interest rates as the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has finally started its rate cutting cycle with its first rate cut in January earlier this year. The RBI had established targets for inflation under its new policy regime and as such those targets have been met comfortably and set the stage for a further easing of policy in the coming months. That said, the RBI continues to remain vigilant on the external front and the possible threat of capital outflows in response to the normalization of monetary policy in the US. Accordingly, while we do expect the RBI to continue easing, the cycle is unlikely to be as deep as some in the markets expect.

The situation is further being buttressed by a perceptible improvement in the external account metrics with the current account deficit coming under control despite the government lifting most of the import restrictions from the last year. Imports have fallen sharply in response to the halving of global crude oil prices and while exports have suffered too, service exports have held up as growth in the US has rebounded in the current year. Foreign fund flows through the portfolio route have picked up massively after the elections responding to an improvement across most macroeconomic parameters. The more important and stable flows through the Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) route have also picked up as the government increased the level of permissible investments into some sectors.

Overall there is a real sense that a new set of reforms and the enthusiasm in the markets can lead India towards another prosperous era of high growth.

The Indian economy finally saw a bounce back from decadal lows seen for growth over the last two years. Government data shows that GDP had grown by 5.5% in the first two quarters of the Financial Year 2015 (FY15) in accordance with the older format of calculating growth numbers. Growth benefitted from both a revival in sentiment and a cyclical bounce back in the current year.

As a start, growth rebounded in the crucial industrial sector as all the three major components namely the mining, manufacturing and electricity picked up pace from last year. Within the mining sector multiple clearances on the policy front has helped particularly in the case of coal production. Coal output rose despite the cancellation of 204 mining licenses, essentially showing that the government was intent on bringing down coal imports. Steel production was the main laggard within the core industries as it suffered lower production volumes on account of a massive decline in global prices. Overall, core industries also performed better than the previous year with the core infrastructure sector growing by 4.4% in the first nine months of FY15 as compared to 4.1% in the previous year. Electricity production continued to impress as it registered a growth of 10% in the period from April to December as compared to 5.6% in the previous year. Manufacturing growth on the other hand remained anemic as it printed in 1.2% in the first nine months as compared to a contraction of 0.4% in the same period last year

Separately, the industrial sector was buoyed by a better performance of the construction sector, which saw growth of 4.8% and 4.6% in Q1 and Q2 of FY15. The industrial economy is likely to witness another year of sub par growth and would most probably see improved number from the first quarter of FY16.

The services sector continued to show a stable rate of growth slightly benefitting from the benign revival on the industrial front and largely shrugging off the global slowdown. Growth printed in around the 7% mark driven primarily by higher public expenditure and the financial sector. The trade, hotels and communication sub-sector remains weak growing by barely 2.8% and 3.8% in the first two quarters respectively, another indication that the activity levels on the ground are yet to see a meaningful pickup. We would expect the services sector to continue to show stable rates of growth and gradually improve as the industrial sector witnesses a more sustained pickup.

Moving on to the agriculture side, the performance has been rather impressive given the high base of last year and the erratic monsoons witnessed this year. The agricultural sector has raked up an impressive 3.8% and 3.2% in the first two quarters. While the performance up until now has been impressive, the second half is likely to suffer from lower production levels as sowing of important kharif crops has been lower in the current year. However it is crucial to note that agricultural output still remains dependent on yearly monsoon rains. At present, approximately 60% of the land remains rain fed and any departure of rains from its historical patterns affects the overall output. There is also a need for large scale use of technology to improve acreage of crops and make them more resilient of pests and insects. Usage of genetically modified crops, though controversial, can be a possible solution to the problem once farmers are convinced of its benefits. Lastly, the Indian agricultural sector is woefully short of adequate storage facilities. Inadequate power supply and consequently the lack of cold storage facilities result in almost 40% of total fruits and vegetables being wasted before reaching the markets. A quick resolution to these issues can give an immediate boost of incomes and consumption in the rural economy.

The last year saw India enter a sweet spot as growth rebounded, inflation declined and the external accounts came under control. From then on there has been a lot of positivity built around the India growth story and India seems to be poised to enjoy another spurt in growth. However, to convert this promise into tangible reality we need the government to institute the correct set of reforms all that would set India on the virtuous cycle of growth.

NOTE – 17

Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Preparation

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in India under the historical cost convention on accrual basis. Pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, till the Standards of Accounting or any addendum thereto are prescribed by Central Government in consultation and recommendation of the National Financial Reporting Authority, the existing Accounting Standards notified under the Companies Act, 1956 (the 'Act') shall continue to apply. Consequently, these financial statements are prepared to comply in all material aspects with the Accounting Standards notified under sub-section (3C) of Section 211 of the Act [Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006] and the other relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

All assets and liabilities are classified as current or non-current as per the company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current – non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

(b) Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition, including any attributable cost for bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss.

Depreciation on tangible assets is calculated on a straight-line basis as per the rates prescribed under Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, except in respect of the following assets where the estimated useful lives of the assets based on the technical evaluation, have not undergone a change on account of transition to the Companies Act, 2013:

Description	Estimated Useful Life
Tangible Assets
Servers and Networks	3 Years
Electrical Installations	12.5 Years
Others	12.5 Years
Vehicles	5 Years
Office Equipments – Mobile Handsets	2 Years

22ND ANNUAL REPORT 2014-15

Intangible Assets
Trade Marks	5 Years

Assessment is carried out at each Balance Sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an asset (tangible and intangible) may be impaired. Impairment loss is provided to the extent the carrying amount of assets exceed their recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Net selling price is the amount obtainable from the sale of an asset in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, less the costs of disposal.

(c) Investments

Long-term Investments are stated at cost. Provision is made to recognise a decline, other than temporary, in the value of Long-term Investments. Current Investments are stated at lower of cost and fair value.

(d) Inventories

Inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on moving weighted average basis. Cost of work-in-progress and finished goods includes labour and manufacturing overheads, where applicable. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(e) Foreign Currency Transactions

There was no foreign exchange inflow or Outflow during the year under review.

(f) Revenue Recognition

Sales are recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership in the goods are transferred to the customer and are recognised net of trade discounts, rebates, sales tax and excise duty.

(g) Taxes on Income

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of estimated taxable income for the year.

Deferred tax is recognised for all the timing differences, subject to the consideration of prudence in respect of deferred tax assets. Deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date.

(h) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date and the results of operations during the reporting period. The actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revision to such accounting estimates is recognised in the accounting period in which such revision takes place.

(i) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Earnings considered in ascertaining the Company's earnings per share is the net profit for the period after deducting preference dividends and any attributable tax thereto for the period.

(j) Leases

Lease in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period of the lease.

(k) Cash and Cash Equivalents

In the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, demand deposits with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

(l) Related Party Transaction

During the year, no transactions have been entered by the Company with any related party.
